

Team Review Activity Sheets

1A: Crying is the way _____ tell you they need something.

1B: _____ is the way babies tell you they need something..

1C: Crying is the way babies tell you they _____ something.

2A: Babies do not cry because they are _____ or because they are trying to annoy you

2B: Babies do not cry because they are bad or because they are trying to _____ you.

2C: Babies do not _____ because they are bad or because they are trying to annoy you.

3A: In the first 6 months, babies cry from hunger and _____ .

3B: In the first 6 months, babies cry from _____ and pain.

3C: In the first 6 months, babies _____ from hunger and pain.

4A: Hunger is the most _____ cause of crying in a young baby.

4B: _____ is the most common cause of crying in a young baby.

4C: Hunger is the most common cause of _____ in a young baby.

5A: When babies are too cold or too _____ they might cry.

5B: When babies are too _____ or too hot they might cry.

5C: When babies are too cold or too hot they might _____.

6A: Babies might also cry from loneliness, _____, and frustration.

6B: Babies might also cry from loneliness, boredom, and _____.

6C: Babies might also cry from _____, boredom, and frustration.

7A: To get a baby to stop crying you can try singing softly or gently _____ the baby.

7B: To get a baby to stop crying you can try _____ softly or gently rocking the baby.

7C: To get a baby to stop crying you can try singing softly or _____ rocking the baby.

8A: You can also try showing the baby a _____ or patting him on the back to get him to stop crying.

8B: You can also try showing the baby a toy or _____ him on the back to get him to stop crying.

8C: You can also try showing the baby a toy or patting him on the back to get him to _____ crying.

9A: You must never _____ a baby to get her to stop crying.

9B: You must _____ shake a baby to get her to stop crying.

9C: You must never shake a baby to get her to stop _____.

OC: a baby can cause head injuries.

